Sunday Readings

Amos 8:4-7 "Listen to this all who trample on the needy".

Psalm PRAISE THE LORD WHO RAISES THE POOR

1 Timothy 2:1-8 "There should be prayers offered to everyone to God"

Luke 16:1-13 "You cannot be the slave both of God and money".

Today's gospel reading contains three moral teachings. The first exhorts the listener to be prudent about the use of wealth. Like the steward in the parable, those who would follow Jesus must put transitory affairs in proper perspective. Christians should handle the affairs of temporal life with an eye toward eternal life. The second says that those who can be trusted in small things can also be trusted in great things. If Christians handle money and other passing things responsibly, then they can also be trusted with the affairs of the Kingdom of God. Finally, Jesus tells his listeners that no one can serve two masters simultaneously.
