Sunday Readings

Acts 12:1-11 "Now I know the Lord really did save me from Herod"

Psalms FROM ALL MY TERRORS THE LORD SET ME FREE"

2 Tim 4:6-8,17-18 "All there is to come know is the crown of righteousness reserved for me."

Matthew 16:13-19 "You are Peter and I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven"

The church has celebrating the solemnities of Peter and Paul together throughout its history. Together, the two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there.

In a sermon in the year 395, St. Augustine of Hippo said of Ss. Peter and Paul: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labours, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith."
